

Application for Advanced Placement Credits (APC)
For NUS Module MA1100

Eligibility:

Incoming students of the Faculty of Science who were medal winners in the International Mathematical Olympiad (IMO) may apply to be considered for the APCs for MA1100 (Fundamental Concepts of Mathematics).

You can apply only if you had won the medal at the IMO within the last 5 years prior to the date of admission to the University.

You must also provide a photocopy of the certificate on the medal obtained in the IMO to support your application.

Application Procedure:

If you fulfil the above criteria, please fill up the MA1100 APC application form below and submit it together with a photocopy of the medal certificate in person at the Faculty of Science, Dean's office latest by 12 July 2017

Applying for MA1100 APCs:

Under the existing NUS framework for APCs, undergraduates receiving APCs will only be awarded the modular credits with no Letter Grades being issued.
