

Job Opening: Dean, Faculty of Science, National University of Singapore

Background

The National University of Singapore (NUS) invites applications for the post of Dean, Faculty of Science.

The Faculty of Science has provided high quality science education for over 85 years. The Faculty's success is grounded upon its excellent curriculum and driven by impactful research that has helped shape Singapore's scientific landscape in education and research. This has contributed significantly to the University being recognised as one of the top universities in Asia and the world. The Faculty of Science is one of the largest faculties in NUS, comprising six internationally recognised academic departments: Biological Sciences, Chemistry, Mathematics, Pharmacy, Physics, and Statistics and Applied Probability. The Faculty also oversees the Lee Kong Chian Natural History Museum and six research centres. For further information regarding the Faculty of Science, please visit its website at <http://www.science.nus.edu.sg/>

Candidate profile

As the Faculty forges ahead to achieve its vision of being among the world's best in Science education and research, NUS seeks an individual who will have the leadership experience required to innovate and lead in a premier academic setting; notable collaborative skills; the ability to recruit, retain and develop excellent and diverse faculty, students and staff; strong operational/financial skills to fulfill the goals of the Faculty; as well as an illustrious record of scholarly achievements and a distinguished reputation within the broader sciences community, appropriate for appointment as a tenured full professor in one of the departments in the Faculty.
